RED MEN

From all Parts of Reservation Will Assemble at Middlesboro Next Week

Kindling of Great Council Fire by Great Sachem McDonald, For First Time in Mountains, a Special Feature

On next Tuesday morning, May 10th, the Great Council of the Improved Order of Red Men will assemble as the guest of Oniska Tribe, No. 140, in the city of Middlesboro, for a two days' session.

The coming of the Red Men has already electrified the enterprising citizens of the Magic City and a grand welcome awaits everyone who attends. A general house cleaning has been in progress for several days and the tin cans have been relegated to the dump and brush paint applied and flags and hunting will be on display in profusion, according to reports that come from that city.

At 10:30 o'clock, Tuesday morning, the first session of the Great Council will be called to order at the Manning Theater by Great Sachem W. H. McDonald, at which time the public will be permitted to attend and hear the addresses and responses. The opening prayer will be offered by Past Sachem, Rev. O. K. Dickey, pastor of the Middlesboro Methodist Church.

The session will be snoudered and re-kindled, morning, afternoon and evening on the two days closing with election and installation of Great Chiefs on Wednesday.

The city of Middlesboro joins with Oniska Tribe in preparing for this meeting and all who avail themselves of this opportunity to visit the Magic City, will be royally received and entertained.

Past Sachems from all the Councils throughout the reservation of Kentucky will be present and this meeting bids fair to be one of the most interesting and pleasant of any ever held in the State.

Tehoupitoulas Tribe of this city will send a full delegation and will aid her sister tribe in entertaining.

Grasp Opportunity by the Hand.

"The development of Oklahoma from a wild Indian reservation to one of the great States of the American Union, with 1,950,000 population in 19 years, is a record for real progress never equaled by any other Commonwealth in the Union. The new State has an area of 70,430 square miles. The foundations of the State have only been laid, a little more of the brush has been cleared away, and a solid basis for the enduring structure that has been planned. As an agricultural State it takes high rank even now, when only a very small per cent. of the tillable land has been brought under cultivation. The impetus given to the agricultural interests by the removal of restrictions on the sale of 9,000,000 acres of Indian land will cause all material interests to expand as never before dreamed of. The effect will be the further development of the railroads and building of larger cities at commercial centers."

"The mineral wealth of the State is very great. Twenty valuable minerals are found in the Commonwealth. The most important are coal, lead and zinc, asphalt, marble, glass sand, gypsum and salt. It is no wonder, therefore, the several towns and commercial centers are growing."

So writes the Manufacturers' Record, the leading industrial paper in the country, published in Baltimore, Md.

No commercial center of the giant young Commonwealth has grown, or promises to grow with more rapidity and solidity, than Bartlesville.

Its record for enormous expansion is before the public, illustrating a genius for safe and enduring development, possessed by such genius only as the Bartlesville Townsite Co., whose ad appears elsewhere. That company, giving every blank in Bartlesville for reference, states:

"We have donated one acre of ground in the center of our addition on which is built a handsome two-story brick school house which was completed for the last term."

"Within a few blocks of Highland Park 270 acres has been bought on which is built a million dollar cement plant. Highland Park lives big and healthy, has graded streets, first class street car service, shade trees, sidewalks and a natural gas pipeline through the addition."

We believe we have one of the best and surest investments for the public in the State of Oklahoma today. $100 per lot $10 cash, $5 per month. No interest, no taxes. No payments during sickness. Insurance clause, free deed in case of death."

BASE BALL

Union's Streak of Luck Changes at Last

S. B. M. S. Defeated U. C. La 1 Monday in a Close Game; 2 to 1.

After winning seven straight games, U. C. met their Waterloo last Monday, when they crossed bats with the S. B. M. S. boys of our neighboring town, London. Failure to get hits when hits meant scores, mingled with errors by Capt. Faulkner and L. Golden, together with some raw decisions by the umpire, tells the tale.

S. B. M. S. scored one in the first inning by some "homehead" playing of two U. C. "stars". However, the U. C. boys were not discouraged and seemed to tighten up a little bit, neither side crossing the plate again until the eighth, when a seemingly bad decision at home plate allowed the visitors to count an other, which proved to be the winning score. The locals tried hard in their half of the eighth to tie the score, but fell short one, after making one from a double by Cole, which was repeated by Decker.

Watkins, pitcher for the locals, was in his usual fine form, allowing only three hits, while U. C. touched Lewis, pitcher for S. B. M. S., for six. With proper support Watkins would have won the game.

U. C. goes to Straight Creek to-morrow.

Have You Been Counted?

The census enumerator has been busily engaged for the past few days in taking the population of our city, and if you have been overlooked you should report the matter at once to the Mayor and he will call the attention of the enumerator to the omission and have you properly listed. The government wants a correct list and every name added to the list is one more for the population of Barbourville. If you have not been listed do so at once.

POPULAR

Enthusiasm Displayed for Powers.

Paintful Surprise For Edwards' Cimsy Bosses at Corbin.

Last Saturday afternoon at four o'clock Chairman A. T. Siler called the Eleventh Congressional District Committee to order in the hall over the Postoffice near the Corbin Hotel. The Secretary read the call for the meeting.

All nineteen counties of this, the largest district of the State were represented, either in person or by proxy, when Chairman Siler called the meeting to order at 4 o'clock.

The following delegates were present: Adams county, W. A. Colley; Bell county, John D. Fitzpatrick; Casey county, J. D. Lay; Clay county, T. J. Hunsbelle; Clinton county, D. W. Clark (by proxy); Cumberland county, Charles Finley (by proxy); Harlan county, J. S. Kelly (by proxy); Jackson county, L. B. McIlrath (by proxy); Knox county, John Gilliam; Laurel county, J. K. Lewis; Leslie county, W. E. Ray; Letcher county, D. S. Wilson (by proxy); Monroe county, D. W. Bushong; Owsley county, D. W. Garrett; Perry county, Joe Johnson; Pulaski county, Judge R. C. Tartar; Russell county, M. B. Faulkner (by proxy); Wayne county, J. W. Simpson (by proxy); Wintley county, J. L. Manning.

Charles Finley held a proxy for Cumberland county and offered a resolution for a primary to be held August 1. The resolutions were voted down by five yeas, four nays and one member in person voting for it. Judge R. C. Tartar, chairman of Pulaski county, offered the following resolution which was adopted fourteen to five.

RESOLUTIONS.

"Whereas A. T. Siler, chairman of the Eleventh Congressional District Committee, called this meeting for the purpose of fixing a time and manner of nominating a Republican candidate to run for office of Congressman on the Republican ticket to be voted for at the regular November election 1910, and

"Whereas, a majority of said committee is now present in person.

"Now Therefore be it Resolved, That we do hereby approve of the assembling of this committee at this time and place for the purpose of fixing a time and manner of nominating a Republican candidate to run for the Republican ticket and be voted for on Congressman at the regular November election 1910.

"Resolved, Further, That it is the sense of this committee and the committee does hereby name Thursday, September 15, 1910, as the time for naming candidates, and

"Resolved, Further, That it is the sense of the committee that a primary election be called for that date to wit; September 15, 1910, and that such primary election shall be held at a conducted under the election laws of the State of Kentucky."

"Resolved, Further, That a sub-committee composed of three members to be named by the chairman from this committee, be appointed to draft rules and regulations governing said primary election. And it is further the duty of said sub-committee to figure out and report back to this committee the amount of money which will be necessary to defray the expense of said primary election." Said sub-committee shall make its full report of rules and regulations which shall govern the vote of said primary election and amount of money necessary to defray the expenses of said primary election back to this committee on Saturday, August 27, 1910, at which time this committee by this resolution is ordered to meet at Corbin, Ky., at 4 o'clock p. m."

The chairman appointed the following as members of the sub-committee referred to: Judge R. C. Tartar of Pulaski county; L. M. Hunsbelle of Clay county; and Judge J. G. Fitzpatrick of Bell county.

It was evident from the start that Edwards had a large majority of the committeemen with him but he could not even then hold them down to a convention which he so much desired, so the only alternative was to postpone definite action as late as possible and give himself all the time possible to make investigation of the true situation and decide whether or not he will enter the race against Mr. Powers.

His supporters were somewhat disappointed because he did not announce himself last Saturday as a candidate for re-election and the report was whispered on inner circles that there was even now some doubt as to his entering the race.

Mr. Powers has assurances from the people that they are for him and he will win easily whether Edwards enters the race or not.

One of the most noteworthy features of the Corbin gathering was the popular enthusiasm for Powers. There were three hundred electors, at least present, from all parts of the district. Three fourths were for Powers. Cries of "Powers! Powers!" frequently rent the air. "Three cheers for Powers!" "Hurray for Powers!" resounded in the ears of the Edwards bosses. Sure sign of Powers' victory at the polls.

Another feature: No Primary was called for September 15. Everything is, contrary to party law and to Statute law, left in the hands of a packed Committee of three.

Honors For Judge

James D. Black.

Barbourville, Knox County, the Mountain section of Kentucky, all of Kentucky, in fact, is honored by the distinction just accorded our esteemed fellow citizen, Hon. James D. Black, by the Washington and Tusculum University, of Greenville, Tenn. Such a notable mark of recognition from a school so celebrated, calls indeed, for more than passing acknowledgment.

Dr. Black is fit recipient, in truth—scholar, jurist, Kentucky gentleman of high culture—to such an honor. His friends, neighbors, fellow Kentuckians, congratulate him. The distinction is honor, conferred on themselves, on his home town, on this grand old Commonwealth, dwelling place of so many men of learning and culture. It is honor, moreover, on the illustrious school itself, which bestows on him the degree of LL. D.

Wear, modestly and fittingly, will Dr. Black the honor given by Washington and Tusculum College. It comes at appropriate time; for Dr. Black, having been recently elected President of Union College, of this city, is about to step into the ranks of the country's leading educators.

An alumnus of Washington and Tusculum College, Dr. Black, having always reflected credit on his Alma Mater.

He will continue, both as jurist and College President, to win fame for that historic school, while nobly discharging, at the same time, the onerous and honorable duties of Barbotville's great college institution of Mountain Methodism.

HON. AUGUSTUS E. WILLSON.

Three years will soon have passed since the Hon. Augustus E. Willson took office as Governor of Kentucky. For peace and for progress, for prosperity and for stability, has his marvellous administration made abundantly, in every hour of his happy duration. Conscientious, painstaking, judicious and able, Augustus E. Willson ranks with the best of governors, that this Union of States has ever had.

Historians point with pride to the War Governors of the Lincoln period. But if there were, and we rejoice to know, that God so blessed us, really great War Governors, there have been, also, and there now are, great Peace Governors.

Among the latter ranks nobly the Hon. Augustus E. Willson, of Kentucky. The shadow of the Guelph reign of terror rested on the State when Gov. Willson was inaugurated. Carefully and studiously, but firmly and fearlessly, with the practically unanimous approval of all men, Mr. Willson proceeded to lift the cloud that had so long darkened Kentucky's horizon. At his magic touch, peace and confidence replaced turmoil and mistrust. Kentucky entered on a new era.

Gov. Willson's treatment of the Tolson situation, met with some criticism, in quarters to which such criticism should have been a stranger; but, standing for law and order, for justice, alike to producer and to purchaser, he saved the State from chaotic conditions that were fatal, both to capital and to labor, and had made our State a victim of disruption and decay.

To Augustus E. Willson, the Republican party is, under an obligation everlasting, of gratitude. For that party to nominate, for his successor, any apostate Republican apologist of disorder; any mitigator of midnight outrage; any extenuator of dead of night fire brand or assassin's gun, were not only ingratitude to Gov. Willson, but an insult to the State of Kentucky, to be quickly and emphatically resented by its people. No; Kentucky, and especially Republican Kentucky, will never forget or condone Gov. Willson's manful and magnificently fearless stand for law, order, peace and justice.

Not indifferent is the Republican party of the Nation to such services as Gov. Willson has rendered the State and the Union. The Republican party stands for peace and progress, through the enforcement of law, without distinction of class or condition. Services, such as Gov. Willson has rendered Kentucky, are of national value and significance, really. Hence, leading Republicans in the Empire State of New York; in grand old Pennsylvania; in Illinois, the home of Kentucky's Lincoln, propose to tender Mr. Willson, in 1912, the Vice-Presidential nomination. An ideal Vice-President, indeed, were Augustus E. Willson; a luminous jurist; an able parliamentarian; a genuine patriot; a Kentucky gentleman. Hold up his hands, let every Kentuckian.

With politically hostile Legislatures; with a carping critic or two, within, but not of his own party, to deal with, Mr. Willson's estimable personality and the lofty character of his statesmanship have achieved wonders for Kentucky. When history's diamond pen writes the roll of Kentucky's really great Governors, high place will occupy the honored name of Augustus E. Willson.

ENOCH P. CLARKE.

Barbourville has welcomed within her gates many worthy and notable visitors. She gives the glad hand to every representative true manhood. The manhood of the Mountains loves that genuine manful bearing, that fearless manful thinking, that conquering manful doing which inspired the line.

Storms may howl round thee, Foes may hunt and hound thee; Shall they overpower thee? Never, never, never!

Born in Fleming County, May 20, 1830, Enoch P. Clarke stands for a type of that stainless American citizenship and of that worshipful Christian excellence, which have made this the foremost nation on earth. Fleming County, the Blue Grass in general, is proud of Enoch P. Clarke. To him, Knox County raises its but in gratitude. He is our benefactor. We owe him Barbourville's honored and enterprising citizen, his son, Mr. J. Smith Clarke, proprietor of the Jones Hotel, who has done and is doing so much for the development of Barbourville's interests.

Beginning life with the advantage of a fine home raising, and the educational training afforded by the Public Schools of his native place, Mr. Enoch P. Clarke devoted his young manhood to farming. But there came early in his life, a call to arms. Believing in the doctrine of States' Rights for which the Confederacy stood he enlisted under the banner of the "Lost Cause." Oct. 1, 1861, and served till the end of the tremendous conflict between the States.

His first commander was Gen. Humphrey Marshall. Serving in the cavalry branch of the Confederate service, Mr. Clarke participated in many a hard fought fight. Besides service in Kentucky under Gen. Humphrey Marshall, he fought in Virginia under Gen. John L. Williams.

He was with Wheeler in his famous raid through Mid-Tennessee fighting fiercely at McMinnville, Charleston, Nashville, Shelbyville, At Chickamauga also, he saw service, being placed at the extreme right of the Confederate forces.

Fighting under Gen. Morgan after that noted commander had escaped from prison, he took part in engagements at Mt. Sterling and Cynthia. Wounded and captured at Cynthia, June 1864, he was taken to Camp Vinton, Ind., where he remained till April 1, 1865. Mr. Clarke having been exchanged, then returned to Virginia, a few days before Lee's surrender and the fall of the Confederacy.

Neither treasure, nor spoils of war had he to bring back but something more valuable did he have on which to base hope and effort for the future.

There is a strength Deep bedded in our hearts of which we rock

But little, till the shafts of Heaven have pierced Its fragile dwelling. Must not the earth be rent

Before the gems are found? Begin life anew did Mr. Clarke, in Fleming County, where he once more took up abode, May 15, 1865.

He, subsequently, sold his farm there and moved to Mason. Giving up farming, for a time, he devoted twelve years to business in coal, lumber, and grain. Having served four years, as Deputy Sheriff of Bourbon County, Mr. Clarke was elected Sheriff of that opulent shire, filling the office with honor, and winning thereby, a higher place, if such were possible, in the esteem of neighbors and fellow citizens. He is, at the present moment, a resident of Millersburg, and devotes all leisure time to the management of his fine farm, three miles from that beautiful city.

Mr. Clarke has blessed Kentucky with three sons and two daughters. Needless here to speak specially of our friend and neighbor, Mr. J. Smith Clarke, whom everybody in the Mountains cherishes and esteems. William, the second son is engaged in business with Kaufman and Strass, Lexington, Laev, the third son, holds a responsible place with the L. & N. Railway at Paris, Ky.

The daughters are Mrs. W. G. Lutz, wife of a prosperous farmer near Millersburg, and Mrs. Robert Boone, of Lexington, where she and her husband are held in highest regard.

Mr. Clarke was married Oct. 31, 1865, to Miss Ball, of Robertson County. Does not this name, dear reader, sound familiar? Is it not a Mary Ball, mother of George Washington, who has illustrated American history by every maidenly and womanly virtue that Americans worship? Well, to that self-same Ball family, holding so high a place in Virginian and American history, Mrs. Enoch P. Clarke belongs. Of such a mother her children are proud. Proud of them is every community that enjoys their presence, for they are worthy of the blood that courses in their veins and inspires their endeavors. Such American mothers recall that heroic Queen of France, who told the Knights at Bannetta, that she would die in armor before the enemy should take the city.

Before her words they thrilled like leaves

When winds are in the wood. And a deepening murmur told of men

Roused to a loftier mood. JOAS FRANCIS COFFEY.

FOR A NEW KENTUCKY HOME

To all Kentuckians Seeking Health, Wealth and Happiness!

Thousands of Kentuckians are Going to Oklahoma

Results For Everybody! Reward For Everybody! Recompense for Every Form of Toil, Mental and Manual, greets Every Seeker of Success.—Oklahoma's diadem of prosperity has no brighter gem than BARTLESVILLE. The giant young Metropolis of North-Eastern Oklahoma offers all Kentuckians the richest opportunities. BARTLESVILLE, a dot on the map ten years ago had, in 1907, a population of 4,215. To-day its population exceeds 15,000; five years hence, it will be 50,000; ten years hence, 100,000.

If you are a manufacturer, get into a city where your efforts at town-building and your enterprise and public spirit will be appreciated and backed up—where a free site will be given you and you will have no investment for land; where your fuel or power will cost half what it is costing you now, and where insurance rate and taxes will be lighter. If your raw material is high-priced, or a mean competition is too hard, or your business too big for its present location, go to Bartlesville. Make a trip out there and investigate the labor supply and all other conditions of business.

If you are a farmer, go and get this good land while it is cheap. It will yield you a large income while you farm it, and when ready to sell it, you can get $100 an acre for the land that cost you one-fourth or one-half that.

If you are a builder, go and erect the dwellings and business blocks needed for the rapidly-increasing population. Rents pay 20 to 40 per cent. on the buildings and you get the increase in the value of the real estate also.

Buy a Lot For a Home Now.—BARTLESVILLE will allow no men to be idle or moneyless. She puts every one to work, puts money in every pocket.

BARTLESVILLE district produces 100,000 Barrels of Oil every day. Mid-Continent oil field produced $25,000,000 in one year.

Bank Deposits of Bartlesville, $3,000,000 in One Year.

A Home in this thriving City for $100--$5 down, $5 per month until paid for.

Oklahoma is a veritable NEW KENTUCKY; Smiling Kentucky Faces may be seen any day or hour, on the streets of Bartlesville.

Cut this Coupon out and Mail To-day! It will not place you under any obligation to buy. Mr. ASA W. DeBELL, President, Bartlesville Townsite Co., Bartlesville, Oklahoma. Please send to me full particulars concerning your offer in Mountain Advocate. Give names of some Kentuckians located in your city, and other information.

Mrs. Fannie Johnson, whose illness was reported last week, is yet lingering at the point of death with but little, if any, hope for her recovery. All the children have been called home and the end would not be a surprise at any time. The sympathy of the entire community goes out to the family.

Ben Gregory has started in with the Advocate this week to learn the cases and from the start he is making, he bids fair to soon be as famous a printer as Ben Franklin, his worthy predecessor. Here's wishing him every success. May his fondest hopes and highest ambitions soon be realized.

LOCAL LOOM BREVITIES.

Another cold wave made its appearance Wednesday, but did no damage as yet.

Let the Court Officials have the rubbish around the Court house cleaned up and put the premises in order. The Civic League is doing their part to beautify the town now let everybody join in and lend a helping hand and we will have a much prettier city.

Base Ball Locals.

Don't lay it to the Umpire, boys! He wasn't to blame.

Oh well, what's the use, seven out of eight is not so bad?

Some close to that man Lewis in left field.

Watkins was there with the goods, striking out 15 men and all-owing only two hits; too bad he had such ragged support.

W. Watkins and Decker had a fielding average of 1000 in the outfield, neither man having a chance G. Eden was not quite so lucky.

The infield indulged in a high throwing contest which was won by Finkner.

Kidnaps for the visitors put up a nice game at short and was also there with the big stick.

Steve Golden was out in uniform and practiced a little and will soon be back at his old place at 1st base.

"With all her faults I love her still!"

Corbin 4, U. C. 17. Who'd a thought it.

MOTHER'S DAY.

In accordance with the proclamation of the Hon. Consul, the local Camp of Modern Woodmen of America passed a resolution requesting all members to observe Mothers Day by wearing a white flower on his coat all day next Sunday May 8th. The flower selected is the snow drop so common in most of our yards.

Any one unable to find these flowers may be supplied by calling upon Dr. Luck.

All Neighbors of Barboursville Camp No. 1493, Modern Woodmen of America, take notice and govern themselves accordingly.

Done by order of the Camp, John R. Gates, Clerk.

Before Circuses.

A traveling man gets off the following:—

An old negro preacher in one of the Kentucky hill towns was dilating upon events in the Bible which had a zoological trend. He described the deluge and how all the animals, two by two, went into the ark and were saved. Then he discussed the incident of Jonah and the whale, (Jonah's ass and finally the exploit of Daniel, who entered the den of ravenous lions and emerged unharmed. His auditors listened with interest, and some of them seemed to have their doubts as to the authenticity of the tales.

Finally one of the younger negroes rose up and inquired: "Say, nabson, woz dem lions just like the kind we has now?"

"Close, not, cose not," retorted the preacher, irritated at being interrupted. "Da was B. C., meann' befo' circuses."
